Purpose of role

The lecturer in Design for Art Direction will be responsible for teaching, curriculum development, and on-going scholarship on the Ma Design for Art Direction course. This course is part of the Branding & Design Innovation programme within the Design School at London College of Communication. The post-holder will work collaboratively within a course team, deploying specialist expertise to develop pedagogy and the curriculum in innovative and critical directions.

Purpose of role

The post-holder, as part of the teaching team, will be expected to –

- Undertake delivery and development of a distinctive approach to art direction across the course content at the postgraduate level.
- Contribute to and take responsibility for student-centred learning, teaching and assessment delivery, providing academic and pastoral support as necessary, monitoring student progress, supporting student transition into postgraduate study, and maintaining appropriate records.
- Undertake pedagogic and curriculum development that stimulate thought and practice, challenging the canon of visual communication and broadening art direction practices with the aim of promoting diversity and inclusivity.
- Undertake unit design and delivery that expands the capacity of the course to support students' development of responsible design processes, in particular in relation to current debates questioning the relationship between art direction and eco-social justice prompting critique of systemic norms.
- This responsibility is of immediate strategic importance and may develop or change in the light of new priorities.
- The post-holder is expected to uphold and implement the policies and procedures of the University of the Arts London and the College.

Duties and Responsibilities

Teaching

- To undertake teaching as appropriate to your areas of expertise and the subject areas of the Course, Programme or College.
- To stay abreast of research and other developments in art direction practices as they shape creative education and to ensure that these developments are reflected in the curriculum in consultation with colleagues and within the structures and mechanisms established by the University and the College.

- To extend the level of subject expertise and critical understanding on the Course so as to keep the curriculum at the forefront of critical creative and professional practice and relevant to a diverse and international range of students.
- To conduct assessment, formative and summative, which is rigorous, fair and clear and complies with the policies established by the University and the College.
- To provide both academic and pastoral support to students, monitoring progress and attendance, and maintaining appropriate records.

Professional

- To initiate or engage in pedagogic inquiry and teaching development as required with the specific focus of improving student engagement, experience and progression.
- To participate in the engagement of students in feedback processes, and in consultation with the course team and course leader, respond to the issues raised through this engagement.
- In consultation with the Course Leader, to liaise with other staff to enhance and extend the educational and creative links between the Course and other courses across the Programme, College and University.
- To undertake the scholarly activity (including research, knowledge exchange or teaching) relevant to graphic branding practices and their role in responding to calls for climate action and social justice.
- To contribute to the devising and delivery of activities (including income generation) which will benefit students' educational experience and graduate outcomes.

Quality, Management and Enhancement

- To contribute to strategic planning in relation to the course/programme in areas such as student recruitment, the deployment of resources, research and knowledge exchange.

- To contribute to the monitoring of the quality of teaching and learning through continuous course monitoring and to contribute to quality, management and enhancement activities across the School, College and University.
- To be a member of the Course Committee of the Course and of such other committees, including other course committees and examination boards, as the Dean of School or Head of College require.

General

- To perform such duties consistent with your role as may from time to time be assigned to you anywhere within the University.
- To undertake health and safety duties and responsibilities appropriate to the role.
- To work in accordance with the University's Staff Charter and Dignity at Work Policy, promoting equality, diversity and inclusion in your work.
- To undertake continuous personal and professional development, and to support it for any staff you manage through effective use of the University's Planning, Review and Appraisal scheme and staff development opportunities.
- To make full use of all information and communication technologies to meet the requirements of the role and to promote organisational effectiveness.
- To conduct all financial matters associated with the role in accordance with the University's policies and procedures, as laid down in the Financial Regulations.
- To personally contribute towards reducing the university's impact on the environment and support actions associated with the UAL Sustainability Manifesto (2016 – 2022).
