

AE STRUCTURE

Academic Enterprise (AE) is made up of 5 inter-linked business areas that generate income for UAL:

SHORT COURSES

Short courses and professional training programmes delivered face-to-face and online at CCW, CSM, LCC and LCF. All part of UAL Short Courses Ltd.

STUDY ABROAD

Study abroad programmes in the arts, design, fashion, communication and performance at UAL for international students. Programmes last from 3 weeks to a year.

LANGUAGE CENTRE

English and Arts, modern foreign language courses for everyone, and pre-sessional English for UAL students. Accredited by the British Council and members of English UK.

UAL AWARDING BODY

Creative qualifications at pre-degree level. Regulated by Ofqual, CCEA and Qualifications Wales.

KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE

Collaborative and creative activities that engage with business and the community. Delivered through the college-based Business and Innovation units.

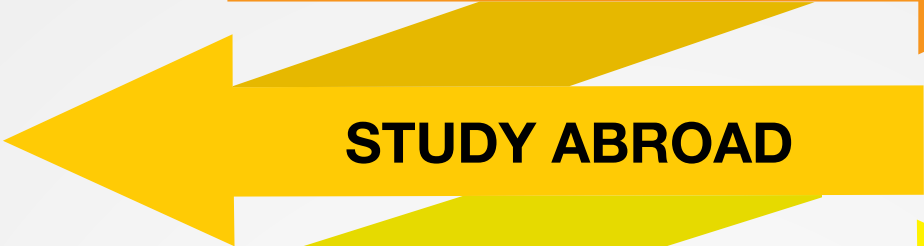

Generates income through international student recruitment for Study Abroad programmes in the arts, design, fashion, communication and performance.

Generates income through the sale of exams and creative qualifications at pre-degree level.

UAL SHORT COURSES

STUDY ABROAD

LANGUAGE CENTRE

UAL AWARDING BODY

KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE

Generates income through student recruitment and bookings on short courses, online courses and professional training programmes at CCW, CSM, LCC and LCF.

Generates income through the English and Arts programme, modern foreign language courses and pre-sessional English for UAL international students.

Generates income, develops partnerships and enhances the student experience and UAL's reputation through collaborative, creative and research activities with business and industry.

ACADEMIC ENTERPRISE

How the department generates surplus for University of the Arts London.