

JOB DESCRIPTION AND PERSON SPECIFICATION
Job Title: Student Adviser Grade: 4 Accountable to: Head of Student Advice & Safeguarding Support	Salary: £34,943 - £42,914 Location: 272 High Holborn, London Section: Student Services, ADS
Purpose of Job: The Student Adviser's role is to provide information, advice and guidance to students, individually or in groups. There are a variety of issues an adviser must understand including finance, immigration rules, relevant application procedures and the support arrangements for all our students. Where appropriate, Student Advisers will negotiate on behalf of students with Student Loans Company, Local Authorities, the Home Office, Benefits offices, etc. Student Advisers staff the Student Services offices across the Colleges of the University of the Arts London and will often be a student's first point of contact with University student support services. Student Advisers will answer many of the initial enquiries to these services. Where appropriate, students will be referred to specialist staff within the team, to other student –facing services or the University, or to external organisations. Student Advisers are based at Student Services offices at the Student Centre or College sites.
Duties and responsibilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To provide information, advice and guidance to students on a variety of topics including finance, immigration rules, their application procedures, and benefits applications for disabled students. • To undertake agreed specialist casework from a range of issues including finance and immigration rules. The postholder will be encouraged to develop and deploy specialist skills and knowledge of advisory work in one or more of these areas in order to support their casework. • To act as liaison, negotiate with, or make referrals to appropriate external agencies, for example, Student Loans Company, Benefits offices, Home Office, debt counsellors, and charitable trusts and foundations. • To undertake advocacy and negotiate on behalf of students, both within the University and in respect of outside bodies such as LAs, the Home Office, Benefits offices, etc. • To deliver presentations on the work of the Student Advice Service, and on the work of student support services in general. • To produce written files, reports, handouts and other materials. These will be for the use of colleagues or students as appropriate. • To undertake accurate statistical recording, and contribute to the evaluation and monitoring of the service. • To undertake a range of appropriate administrative tasks in order to support the delivery of student advice and guidance within Student Services or College sites (e.g. ensuring up-to-date information resources / producing hand-outs etc.) • To work with staff from other areas of Student Services and other departments of the University of the Arts London, including liaison with members of academic and administrative staff in the constituent colleges, and staff and officers of the University's Students' Union.
